

European Law Institute (ELI) Annual Conference and Meetings 2019

Italian Hub's panel on

New Technologies and the Law: The Impact on Rules of Torts, Contracts and the Insurance Market

Juridicum, Schottenbastei 10–16, 1010 Vienna

6 September 2019

11:15–12:40

AGENDA

Theme

The panel will focus on the impact of new technologies on legal categories such as liabilities rules and contracts. It will adopt insurance law as a case study, focusing on motor liability insurance and the use of black boxes, parametric insurance, big data analytics and information asymmetries, as well as the effects and intersections on the distribution system.

Programme:

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 11:15–11:20 | Welcoming Remarks
Riccardo de Caria (Chair of the ELI Italian Hub; University of Torino) |
| 11:20–11:35 | New Technologies: Duty or Opportunity? The Case of Liability Rules and (Motor) Liability Insurance
Diana Cerini (School of Law, Università degli Studi di Milano Bicocca) |
| 11:35–11:50 | The Use of Black Boxes in the Motor Liability Insurance: A Legal Perspective
Pierpaolo Marano (Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore) |
| 11:50–12:05 | New Technologies for New Contracts: The Case of Parametric Insurance
Alberto Monti (University School for Advanced Studies IUSS Pavia) |
| 12:05–12:20 | Big Data Analytics, Risk, Uncertainty and Information Asymmetries
Lydia Velliscig (University School for Advanced Studies IUSS Pavia) |

12:20–12:35

Effect and Intersections on the Distribution System

Santa Nitti (Università degli Studi di Milano)

12:35–12:40

Questions from the Audience