

Supported by the European Union

Seminar

Practical Implications of the New EU Regulations on Property Regimes

29 January 2019, 09:30–16:30 at the Notarion of the Austrian Chamber of Civil Law Notaries, Landesgerichtsstraße 20, 1010 Vienna

Conference languages: German, English

09:30 Welcome Coffee

10:00 Words of Welcome

Hon-Prof Univ-Doz DDr Ludwig Bittner, President of the Austrian Chamber of Civil Law Notaries

Chair: Univ-Prof Dr Christiane Wendehorst, University of Vienna, President of the European Law Institute

10:15 Overview on EU Family Law

Hrvoje Grubisic, European Commission, Secretary of the European Judicial Network in Civil and Commercial Matters

10:50 Q & A Session

11:00–11:30 Coffee break

11:30 The New EU Regulations on Matrimonial Property and Registered Partnership Regimes

Chair: Stephan Matyk-d'Anjony, Austrian Chamber of Civil Law Notaries

1. Jurisdiction rules

Univ-Prof Dr Matthias Neumayr, Vice-President of the Austrian Supreme Court

2. Applicable law

Dr Habil Orsolya Szeibert, Eötvös Loránd University

3. New challenges for international matrimonial agreements

Dr Johannes Weber, Director of the German Notaries Institute, Würzburg

Important information:

This professional event will be tape-recorded for potential publication. In the event of publication, all persons concerned (speakers, contributors to the discussion) will be contacted for approval of their contributions. For the documentation of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute, photographs will be taken at this event. For the documentation of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute, photographs will be taken at this event. These photographs will be stored and archived by the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute. They may also be published in media such as Nota Bene, the journal of the civil-law notaries of Austria. It is possible for you to object to the use of photographs in which you are depicted. Please address objections to the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries (kammer@notar.or.at) or the European Law Institute Secretariat (secretariat@europeanlawinstitute.eu). The data protection policy of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries can be downloaded from www.notar.at/oenk-dse.

Supported by
the European Union

12:30 Q & A Session

13:00–14:00 Lunch at Hotel Rathauspark, Rathausstraße 17, 1010 Vienna courtesy of the ÖNK

14:00 Empowering European Families: Case Studies

Coordinator:

Univ-Prof Dr Christiane Wendehorst, University of Vienna, President of the European Law Institute

15:30 Panel Discussion and Outlook

Chair: Stephan Matyk-d'Anjony, Austrian Chamber of Civil Law Notaries

Hrvoje Grubisic, European Commission, Secretary of the European Judicial Network in Civil and Commercial Matters

Dr Habil Orsolya Szeibert, Eötvös Loránd University

Univ-Prof Dr Prof Matthias Neumayr, Vice-President of the Austrian Supreme Court

Dr Johannes Weber, Director of the German Notaries Institute, Würzburg

16:20 Summary and Final Statement

Dr Rudolf Kaindl, Vice-President of the Austrian Chamber of Civil Law Notaries

16:30 End

Important information:

This professional event will be tape-recorded for potential publication. In the event of publication, all persons concerned (speakers, contributors to the discussion) will be contacted for approval of their contributions. For the documentation of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute, photographs will be taken at this event. For the documentation of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute, photographs will be taken at this event. These photographs will be stored and archived by the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries and the European Law Institute. They may also be published in media such as Nota Bene, the journal of the civil-law notaries of Austria. It is possible for you to object to the use of photographs in which you are depicted. Please address objections to the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries (kammer@notar.or.at) or the European Law Institute Secretariat (secretariat@europeanlawinstitute.eu). The data protection policy of the Austrian Chamber of Civil-Law Notaries can be downloaded from www.notar.at/oenk-dse.