

European Law Institute (ELI) Annual Conference and Meeting 2019

Family and Succession Law Special Interest Group's panel on

New Challenges of European Family and Succession Law

Juridicum, Schottenbastei 10-16, 1010 Wien

6 September 2019

16:00–17:30

AGENDA

Presentation

The panel aims at highlighting the current issues of EU Family and Succession law. In both areas EU regulations and national substantive laws closely intertwine and influence each other. Bea Verschraegen will focus on the new perspectives of International family law, while Prof. Dutta will deal with the impact of the EU regulation (No 650/2012) on succession law. Attendants are invited to actively participate in the final discussion.

Programme

16:00–16:15

Opening and welcome

Elena Bargelli (Co-Chair of the Family and Succession Law SIG, University of Pisa), Bea Verschraegen (University of Vienna)

16:15–16:30

New perspectives on International Family Law

Bea Verschraegen (University of Vienna)

16:30–16:45

Four years international succession law of the European Union - First conclusions

Anatol Dutta (Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich)

ELI

EUROPEAN LAW
INSTITUTE

16:45–17:00

Family Law in Europe Academic Network: New Perspectives for Cross-fertilisation within Legal Protection of Vulnerable Adults in Europe

Masha Antokolskaia (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)

17:00–17:15

Recent case law of the Austrian Supreme Court in family and succession law cases

Matthias Neumayr (Vice President of the Austrian Supreme Court)

17:15–17:30

Discussion

Elena Bargelli (Co-Chair of the Family and Succession Law SIG, University of Pisa), Bea Verschraegen (University of Vienna)

DRAFT