THE EUROPEAN LAW INSTITUTE

Founded in 2011, the European Law Institute (ELI) is an entirely independent organisation that aims to improve the quality of European law, understood in the broadest sense. This it does by initiating, conducting and facilitating research, making recommendations and providing practical guidance in the field of European legal development.

ABOUT THIS EVENT

The Global Private Law Special Interest Group (SIG) considers issues such as preventing foreclosure in the residential immovable property market. It conducts research studies, no matter if their short-term results may not be followed-up by legislation, such as research concerning traffic accidents, mediation, access to private and public housing, financial losses by private investors, third-party litigation funding and European legal education. Other topics concern more general areas of private law, such as punitive measures in private law and pre-/post-contractual liability and uniformity in legal terminology.
