

Human Rights Commission

Human Rights in Iran: Islam, Gender, and the Lawyers' Profession

Friday, March 27, 2026, 11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. - Palazzo di Giustizia di Napoli A. Criscuolo, Sala Girardi

Greetings

Carmine Foreste, President of the Naples Bar Association

Luca Capriello, Chair of the Foreign Affairs Committee, European Union Policies, Defense, Local Authorities - Interparliamentary Group "Sviluppo Sud"

Introducing

Mariella Fiorentino, Coordinator of the Human Rights Commission of the Naples Bar Association

Roberta Foglia Manzillo, Councilor of the Naples Bar Association, Human Rights Delegate

Moderates

Natascia Jafary, Member of the Naples Bar Association

The Islam cult in Iran

Natascia Jafary, Member of the Naples Bar Association Human Rights Commission

Discrimination in Iran

Francesco Andretta, Member of the Fundamental Rights SIG European Law Institute, Human Rights Commissions Union des Avocats Européens and Naples Bar Association

Women in Islamic Culture: Professional Role and the Family

Rozita Shoaei, Activist, "Azadi" Cultural Association of Iranians in Naples, "Woman. Life. Freedom" Movement

The condition of LGBTQI+ People

Federico De Luca, U.N.A.R. Expert, National Representative of the "Rete Lenford", Human Rights Commissions Union des Avocats Européens and Naples Bar Association

Human Rights Commission: Marianna Puzo (Vice Coordinatore), Nunzia Nigro, Francesco Andretta, Federico De Luca, Flaviano Moltedo, Emilio Iacobelli, Natascia Jafary, Maria Zeolla, Marianna Trotta

To receive the remote participation link, write to mariella@iol.it

The role of the Lawyers

Zahra Toufigh, Iranian jurist, legal practitioner Reception Centers for Asylum Seekers/International Protection

European and international sanctions instruments

Mariella Fiorentino, Coordinator of the Human Rights Commission of the Naples Bar Association, President of the European Law Center for Anti-Discrimination Studies (ELCA4), Member of the Fundamental Rights SIG, European Law Institute

Conclusions: current situation and prospects

Parisa Nazari, Pharmacist, Cultural Mediator, Interpreter, Activist of the "Women. Life. Freedom" Movement"

Giuseppe Landolfo, Councilor of Naples Bar Association, Human Rights Delegate